

Dear Immigration Officer / Consular Officer

To whom it may concern,

I, Sergio Ignacio Triay, British citizen, married to Lucas Ribeiro Dos Santos and holder of passport number: residing at 35 Aylesford Street, London, SW1V 3RY U.K. Hereby declare and give notice of Angela's cordial invitation extended by us, to the relevant parties &/or authorities. Our guest Angela, holds Brazilian nationality at the time of her arrival in the U.K. with passport number X , resident at X , to visit my husband and I on their onward travels across Europe and departing today from Seville, Spain.

ANGELA VITORIA is a valued friend of ours, and will be staying at our current place of residence address of which is listed above, for the entire period of their time here in London. X travels as a tourist, and will be funding their own trip here other than accommodation which, indeed, as stated we will be providing during their short stay, here, in London.

For your convenience, I attach the relevant documents to be utilised by the relevant authorities to verify the information provided here and give further proof of my current immigration status here in Britain.

Signature

persons should you need any further clarifications and/or verification to be made in person at the address listed above, or, contactable by phone on: 07537875696 or 07449336359.

We look forwards to receiving X at our home, on their short stay here in London.

Yours Sincerely,

Sergio Ignacio Triay
